by adding the following new sections immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 12-10-122, is amended by adding the following language as a new subsection (c):

(c) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary including Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, municipalities are authorized to form a public building authority, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, for the construction, acquisition, enlargement, repair and renovation of public school buildings, structures and facilities, and shall have the same rights, powers and authority created pursuant to this chapter. A municipality, acting through its elected legislative body may create a public building authority upon a finding and determination that it is wise, expedient, necessary or advisable that such an authority be formed. Municipalities forming a public building authority shall have a board of directors not exceeding seven (7) members, and they shall be so appointed that they shall hold office for staggered terms. At least one board member shall be chosen from the membership of the municipal school board. A public building authority shall be subject to the requirements of this chapter and duly authorized with the powers conferred herein. For purposes of this subsection only, "municipality" means any municipality served by a special school district in any county having a population in excess of eight hundred thousand (800,000), according to the 1990 federal census or any subsequent federal census.
